The platform adopted by the Ohio Republicans represents the extreme Radicalism of the party. It indorses the principle of a prohibitory tariff against imports and demands such an application of it as will restrict American purchases of wool to the American product, it indorses Federal returning boards and poercive measures in Southern elections. It indorses Federal returning boards and coercive measures in Southers elections. It commends the plan of controlling Congress by the will of the Speaker. It indorses the Depondent Pension bill and demands that it shall be followed by a bill pensioning every man who enlisted in the Federal army during the civil war.
